Two FBI agents struggle with desire in the shadow of a killer, in the third installment of Aces & Eights. Nate Gentry has been a rock for his two younger brothers since the day their mom walked out and left them with their abusive father. Now that theyâ€™ve grown up, heâ€™s watched Alex and Court fall in love and settle down. But Nate isnâ€™t made for romance. He keeps his relationships casual. And getting casual with his partner is a fantasy he canâ€™t shakeâ€™Taylor Collins has feelings for Nate, tooâ€™and though they run hot, her best friend on the team is strictly off limits. Until a spark in his eyes says, Go for it. But reaching out could prove to be a bad move now that theyâ€™re working closer together than ever, and on the most dangerous case of their careers. An investigation into a brutal series of murders is stirring up bad memories for Taylor, and neither she nor Nate can imagine how close to home itâ€™s going to hit. When it does, Nate will risk everythingâ€™including his heartâ€™to keep Taylor safe.
